SARDIS.

The new mill of H. M. Pyles is now ready for the machinery. He will put in the roller process for grinding corn. He will not grind wheat now.

The quarterly meeting in the M. E. Church here last Saturday and Sunday was well attended. The preaching by Rev. Cyrus Riffe of Maysville was pleasantly done. His sermons were listened to with close attention, and were liked by all who heard them. Come again, Brother Riffe.

The Public School, which has been going on for eight and a half months, closed here yesterday. Mr. John Gifford and Miss Alice Dorsey have been the teachers. They have given general satisfaction. An angel from heaven could not please every one. The children as a body have learned well. It is not the fault of teachers that some pupils do not learn. There were a number of select readings and recitations. The children were well caddied at the close. They went to their homes with glad hearts and sparkling eyes. The teachers received a number of presents.

SPRINGDALE.

Captain Webb reports business slack at this time.

John Ruggles our own fisherman has been absent since Monday.

Several of our farmers have tobacco plants large enough to transplant.

The Cabin Creek and Springdale Turnpike is still in the ring but somewhat disfigured.

Mrs. Bettie Cole, who has been teaching in Central Kentucky the past year, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Ed. McDonald shipped on Thursday to a firm at Vanceburg six hogheads of fine tobacco. The price realized was 10 cents.

A new experience to our farmers is the daily weather report as given by THE LEDGER. It is highly appreciated by most of them.

Bob Hook is verifying the old adage that "a new broom sweeps clean." This time it is a neat paling fence in front of his premises.

Thomas Sartain declares his intention to prosecute the parties who mutilated the body of Mrs. Bramble to the full extent of the law.

The juvenile portion of our population just turn green with envy when little Dan Hook in his fancy cart takes a fly up the street behind his sometimes not very obedient goat.

THE Court of Appeals has overruled the petition for a rehearing in the case of Tydings vs. Gudgell, taken up from Bath county.

A Rare Treat.

The best time to speak of an entertainment is after you have seen it. Antestimates are generally paid for, and are valueless except for the dollars that are in them. But we are writing of Alha Heywood and his Peerless Company after just coming from Washington Opera-house. The music throughout, vocal and instrumental, was excellent; Mr. Heywood himself was inimitable. His impersonations were so dissimilar that none but a genuine artist could have captured the audience and held it as he did. If the programme is repeated elsewhere as it was given here last night, THE LEDGER begs to assure those who attend that they will be amply repaid.

The audience last night was of the highest character, but shamefully few in numbers. That's always the way, however—a good entertainment, empty seats, a poor show, a full house.

Kentucky Series.

The Kentucky Press Association meets in Lexington next week. The Lexington Press Association will tender them a banquet Wednesday night for which the following programme has been arranged: Invocation, Rev. Dr. H. M. Scudder, of Carlisle, Ky.; "The Commonwealth at Home," Governor John Young Brown; "The Commonwealth Abroad," T. T. Crittenden, of Missouri; "The Penny-rile," Urey Woodson, of The Oenoboro Messenger; "The Mountains," Thomas H. Arnold, of The Middlesborough Critic; "Lexington, the Gem of the Bluegrass," William Preston Kimball, of Lexington; "Education," Judge William M. Beckner; "The Ladies," Judge J. Soule Smith, of Lexington; "The Doctors," Dr. Joe Bryan, of Lexington; "The Lawyers," Emmet Logan, editor of The Louisville Times; "Our Poets," Major Henry T. Stanton, of Frankfort; "The Press," Colonel E. Polk Johnston, of The Frankfort Capital.

Prohibitive Law.

To the good people of Maysville and vicinity: The ordinance passed by the Council Thursday night concerning "spectacle peddlers" is an extreme measure, and prohibitive in its character. I do not feel like paying the license it requires. I do not intend to lay myself liable to the penalty. There is but one way for me to accommodate my friends and patrons in Maysville and vicinity. Hereafter my office will be at the Mineral Well House, Aberdeen. Parties needing eye-glasses, or desiring to consult me in regard to any defect of vision, can find me for the next two weeks. Freight and from Aberdeen will be paid by me. R. GOLDSTEIN, Optician.

Down they go! In order to make room for a carload of stock soon to arrive, I will, for the next thirty days, make a clean reduction of 20 to 25% on all monuments and cemetery work now in my shops. This is a chance for real bargains. M. R. GILMORE.

We Must Have Money!

We must have FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, no matter how great the loss. Circumstances beyond our control compel us to raise this money; hence our great reduction sale. Every day our sales have shown all we asked since the commencement of our big cut in order to double our former sales. We sold twice the quantity of goods that we had ever sold before during the same time, but did not take in a corresponding amount of money. Anyone can see that 1,000 suits worth $15.00 each, when sold at their actual value, will amount to $15,000; but when they are sold at $7.50 a suit, as the case has been with us, the money in drawer only counts up half as much. This ratio of actual value of goods sold and the amount of cash received was universal throughout the store. Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, Hats, Underwear, &c., &c., all sold for prices far less than their intrinsic worth.

THIS MONTH BARGAINS WILL BE BETTER

We know full well that the season has been backward; that money is scarce and that times are hard. We also know that we must turn our stock into cash. We know that to do so we must offer extraordinary inducements in prices. This we have done, and persons who will come to our store during this the second month of this unprecedented, unparalleled and unexpected forced sale of fine goods, can realize from the quality and low prices how great is the necessity for us to turn our merchandise into money.

Thanking you for past favors and urging all to take advantage of this rare opportunity, we are, respectfully,

Jno. T. Martin & Co., The Old Reliable Red Corner Clothing House.
